

The Future is Us Creative Lead Facilitator Role Description

Role title:	Lead creative facilitator
Reports to:	Project Producer
Contract:	Freelance contract
Fee:	£8,750 for 35 days @£250/day
Hours:	Days worked flexibly March – June 2022
Place of work:	This is a freelance role and will consist of agile, flexible working. Your principal base will be the Melville Arts Centre in Abergavenny and delivery in schools and community settings. Administrative systems and organisational support will be through the Borough Theatre.

Purpose of role:

The Future is Us is an ambitious R & D project based in Abergavenny and North Monmouth. Delivered in partnership between The Borough Theatre and the Melville Theatre, the project aims to connect with and capture the creative spirit of young people in the area. Through partnership and consortium working, we want to put young people at the centre of the project design and development.

The project is intended to bring together North Monmouthshire youth to voice their perspectives, to identify their shared experiences and concerns and work on ideas for the future. The project promotes ownership of individual opinions/views and shared creativity.

We are seeking 3 x Lead Creative Facilitators to take a leading role in creating work which has young people at it's very heart. We are interested in hearing from creative facilitators from a range of art forms for example Music, Theatre, Visual arts, Film & Digital technologies, Dance. We are looking for creative practitioners who are used to devise work in collaboration with young people, working in a range of settings, from schools to community groups. The project will culminate in a Youth Arts Festival taking place over the Jubilee Bank Holiday weekend.

There are five phases to the project:

1: Project Development

You will take a leading role in design and development of the project, working with the larger network of youth and cultural organisations through which young people can, and do, access cultural opportunities from schools to brass bands, youth clubs to scouts and guides, amateur youth choirs to professional dance schools.

2: Engagement

You will design and deliver opportunities such as taster sessions and discussion events and workshops with young people, to attract young people to participate in the project and to identify the themes, issues, and questions that the project will explore and the creative skills, media, and platforms the participants wish to explore them with.

3: Exploration

You will devise, support, and initiate activity that builds creative industry skills, that allows reflection, exploration, analysis and comment on subjects and themes identified in the previous phase.

4: Coming Together

The work will culminate in a Youth Arts Festival, taking place over the Jubilee Bank Holiday Weekend (2nd to 5th June 2022) You will devise and organise frameworks and events to showcase the skills, cultural activity and aspirations of the young people. Shaped by the project process the format may be a mini arts festival, a series of performances or exhibitions, a local youth conference, a take over town event or arts activity weekend.

5: Evaluation

As a Creative Lead Facilitator, you will be expected to engage with and feed into the evaluation process of the project.

Key tasks & responsibilities:

- To take a leading role in designing the programme of work, taking special care to include opportunities to connect with and devise new work in close collaboration with young people in the area.
- Deliver a programme of arts activity in schools and community settings
